

IIAS OPEN ACCESS PROGRAM: SETTING THE AGENDA

The International Institute of Administrative Sciences has reached a consistent process to provide publishing opportunities for participants submitting papers to our conferences, both online and in situ. The Open Access project runs in conjunction with the IIAS-EUROMENA 2022, IASIA 2022 and EGPA 2022 Conference.

If you are interested in participating, please express your interest in Conftool by clicking on the box 'I want my paper to be reviewed and considered for further publication opportunities' when submitting your paper for the IIAS-EUROMENA 2022, IASIA 2022 and EGPA 2022 Conference.

What will IAS Open Access program do?

- Members of the Board of Reviewers will rapidly and accurately assess selected conference papers from IAS events,
- IAS will channel conference papers of good quality as to constitute a special issue/symposium in partnered journals and/or to be included in the regular journals' issues.
